

OPEN LECTURE
'Building Europe's Future'
Géza Andreas von Geyr
Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany

On November 18, 2020 at 13:30, HSE University will host an open lecture by Géza Andreas von Geyr, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Federal Republic of Germany to the Russian Federation. The lecture is entitled 'Building Europe's Future'.

The event is organized jointly by HSE University and the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany in Moscow as part of the Germany's Presidency of the Council of the European Union and of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe, as well as in the framework of the Year of Germany in Russia.

What is the place and role of the European Union in the modern world? How is the European integration project developing, and what role does Germany play in it? How are relations between the EU and Russia today? You will learn the answers to these and many other questions during the lecture.

The event will be held online in English (without subtitles).

To attend the open lecture, which will be held over Zoom, please register in advance here. After the lecture, registered attendees will have the opportunity to ask Ambassador von Geyr questions. Please note that the number of spaces is limited.

There will also be a live stream of the event on YouTube.

The broadcast will be open to the general public. We look forward to seeing you there!

